

Water Pot

Date
not dated

Primary Maker
Dogon people

Medium
pottery

Description
With its extraordinarily thin walls, perfectly proportioned shape, and subtly varying all-over texture, this pot is a classic example of one of the oldest styles of pottery in West Africa. Dogon pottery is made for local use and not frequently found in the larger market places.

Dimensions
11 1/2 h. x 14 7/8" dia.